rehabilitate surrendered militants in the North-East Region particularly Assam; if so, how, if not, the reasons therefor; and

(b) whether any scheme in this regard was submitted by the Governments of Assam, Meghalaya, Tripura, Manipur and Nagaland; if so, the details thereof; what is its present status?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI I. D. SWAMI): (a) and (b) Government has introduced a scheme for Surrender-cum-Rehabilitation of militants in the North-Eastern States of Arunachal Pradesh, Assam, Manipur, Meghalaya, Nagaland and Tripura. The Scheme for Surrender-cum-Rehabilitation of militants in the North East is applicable to those militants who have surrendered/surrender after 01.04.1998. The Government of India reimburses the expenditure incurred as per the guidelines on the rehabilitation of surrenderees. The Scheme envisages only assistance for self employment training and the surrendered militants are to apply for self employment schemes and other employment opportunities as per normal rules applicable. Under this scheme, there is no provision to rehabilitate the surrendered militants in the para military forces.

Certain suggestions have been received from the State Governments of Assam, Meghalaya, Tripura, Manipur and Nagaland. Modifications, if necessary, will be carried out in the guide-lines of the scheme.
